

First Time Login Instructions

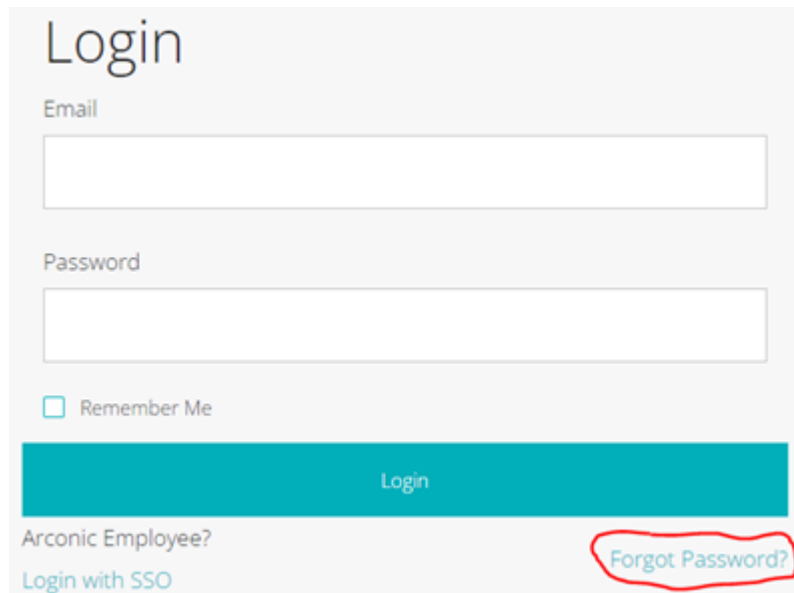

This message is being sent to all active users of ArconicDirect

Arconic is pleased to announce that we have officially completed the upgrade of ArconicDirect, our B2B portal for customers and suppliers. This email contains important instructions for logging into ArconicDirect for the first time and resetting your password.

First Time Login Instructions for Existing ArconicDirect Customers

Existing customers of ArconicDirect will need to change their password before logging in for the first time. Your previous ArconicDirect password will not work in the new system. To reset your password, follow the instructions below.

1. From the ArconicDirect homepage, click the "Forgot Password" hyperlink beneath the login form.
